

Dulcimer Day with Ben Seymour

Saturday, May 17, 2014 9:30am – 4:00pm

St Philip's Episcopal Church
256 East Main St, Brevard, NC

Ben is a well known Carolina musician who enjoys performing and teaching Appalachian, traditional Celtic and other forms of folk music. This workshop is sponsored by the Land of Waterfalls Dulcimers Players who meet weekly at St. Philip's Church and welcome new members. Come and share a fun day with us!

Dulcimer Day Schedule 9:00 Registration opens with coffee and muffins

9:30-10:15 Adding Expression to Your Strumming We will look at how to improve the emotion and dynamics of slow pieces and even fiddle tunes. (all levels)

10:30-12:00 Ensemble Play or How I Learned to Play Well With Others We will put together melody, harmony and chords of some easy recognizable tunes and turn them into lovely ensemble pieces! (novice and intermediate)

12:00 Lunch on your own

1:15-2:00 A selection of Celtic tunes both slow and fast. (intermediate to advanced)

2:00-2:30 Becky will unveil the Mystery of playing the bones! Beginner bones will be provided by Becky & Ben. Better quality sets will be available for sale. (all levels)

2:30 – 3:15 Come Gather Round...Hehehe! We will learn to play some rounds that will also work great as ensemble pieces! (novice and up)

3:15 Concert by Gingerthistle (Ben Seymour and Becky Cleland)

Cost: $35, includes Workshops and Concert (seniors $30)

Afternoon Concert only: $5 (children 12 and under free)

For details and to register, contact:

Ann Brown, 149 Lupine Ridge Circle, Lake Toxaway, NC 28747

Phone (828)877-5506 or email grumps@comporium.net